President Murphy said that this notice was sent with ro intention whatever of having any conflict. He merely desired the ship owners to know that the Health Board would not, as it felt at present, perant the haplot's rarge to be landed here even it it do pass the Health Officer. When eaked if the Health Board and not always heretofore accepted the jurgment of the Health Officer, Col. Murphy responded that this was an entirely new case, that the bullonic plague had never been on the North American Con them, and that the Health Board did not propose to take any chances whatever of allowing it to enter through this city. He had had no consultation with the Fealth authorities of Jersey City, he said. At tot Murphys request Drs. Jenkins and Cosby heid a conference yealerday afternoon at Quarantine with Dr. Doty, who is a member of the Health Officer and the board. The conference was held at Dr. Doty's house, and Dr. Doty said afterway that it was his impression after conversation with the cry Commission after conversation with the cry Com

It was learned in Newark yesterday that Mrs. Emanuel De Roy, the wife of a jeweller in Pittaburg, had lost a chamois bag containing a three-stone ruly ring worth $2,000 and a dismond star brooch valued at $1,000, besides diamond star brooch valued at $1,000, besides other jewelry. She was visiting Mrs. Julius Koch of 77 Hillside avenue. Newark, and on leaving she pinned the bag to a belt under her dress. She did not discover that the bag was lost until well on her way home. Her dress was not cut and she thinks that she must have dreiped the bag in the trolley car or on the train. A reward of $200 has been offered for the recovery of the property.

RAN OF BITH A DISMOND RING. Young Negro Thief Caught-Believed to Be Chicago Graduate.

A youthful negro, wearing a false mustache, entered Samuel Raphael's pawnbroker sales shop at 503 Sixth avenue last night and asked to see a three stone diamond ring that was in the show case window. He aske! Raphael the price of the ring and put it on his finger. Then he ran off with it.

Raphael was so astonished that it was several minutes before he recovered sufficiently to start in pursuit. By that time Mrs. haphnel and her ten-year-old son were hot in pursuit ing the Ansonia Christian Endeavor Union held its quarterly meeting with the Seymour and her ten-year-old son were hot in pursuit of the thief. Policeman O'Donnell joined in the chase and at Broadway and Thirtieth street, within a block of the pawnshop, he overhauled the negro; and ed his revolver in the negro's face, pulled the ring from his finger and arrested him.

The prisoner said he was John M. Stavens. The police believe him to be one of the Chicago crooks who were recently driven out of that city by the temporary activity of the police. the speaker. After the meeting opened the Rev. W. D. McKinney of the Ansonia Bantist Church arose and said that he had visited Unio: City ourlog the day and inquired into the case of Mr. Hanna. He thought that if Mr. Hanna were guilty of the charges or there was any doubt of his innocence, he should not he allowed to speak to the Union. He was gad to be able to read a certificate signed by the President of the council which had heard the testimony. It was the first official utterance on the matter. The certificate was:

"This is to certify that the Rev. T. Carson Hanna has appeared before a council of the Union City Baptist Society to renly to certain reflections cust upon his reputation in the community, and though these accusations are not serious in their na'ure, yet the council has given the matter a thorough investigation and are unanimously agreed as to Mr. Hanna's absolute innocence and propriety of conduct in every particular, and even the lawyer who appeared for the accused and eminent Judge refused to support the charges any further, declaring: I believe Mr Hanna is innocent on all charges as an angel of God and that he has been willfully siandered, and so think every member of the council."

When Mr. Hanna arose to deliver his address on "The Best Influences of Christian Endeavor" he was greeted warmly by the large audience.
